
You came into my life

Contributed by Asif Dange

You came into my life
You came into my life
Quietly, simply, tenderly...
The world stood still
I could not say a word

Nor a single gesture showed.
The feeling kept in my heart
So I've loved you in silence
Worshipped you from a distance
And dreamt of you so often.
I want to say I Love You,
But I'm afraid...
Afraid that you'll just take it for granted.
In silence then, I'll just love you.
In silence I'll find... The fulfillment of my dreams.
