"I won't cry"

Contributed by Asif Dange

I see no reason,
I see no rhyme,
Why have I been left behind
alone to serve the sentence of your crime?
I've been put down and pushed around,
often finding myself on the ground.

I've had to push myself deep inside and build a wall behind which I can hide, hoping only too survive.
I see no reason,
I see no Rhyme,
Why have I been left behind
alone to serve the sentence of your crime?
Though my heart still beats and my lungs still breath,
I no longer feel alive.
I've sealed my feelings deep inside,
Now I wont scream and I won't cry tonight.....
